A: That I am not my own, but belong body and soul, in life and in death to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation.

2Q: What must you know to live and die in the joy of this comfort?

A: 3 things: first, how great my sin and misery are;
Second, how I am set free from all my sins and misery;
Third, how I am to thank God for such deliverance.

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! As we gather for worship, we remember that God calls us to worship Him and on His terms. This morning as we read from Luke 4:14-30, Jesus announced the beginning of His ministry. He was the Savior we needed, but not the Savior people expected or wanted. As we bring ourselves to worship, we must ask ourselves as individuals and as a church—are we looking for a Savior on our own terms, or for the Savior we really need? In the evening, we continue that thought as we read through Psalm 24 and also Lord’s Day 1 of the Heidelberg Catechism. God is our comfort and strength, even during the times where we feel uncomfortable and weak. Knowing this, we can live and worship faithfully and gratefully. Let us worship God today!

Thank You: Cody and I want to express our gratitude for all of the prayers, cards, and meals we received when Cody had his surgery and during his recovery as well! We received and still are receiving so many well wishes on recovery for Cody, which makes transitioning into our new church home so much more welcoming. As we move forward, we continue to covet your prayers as Cody is encountering yet another herniated disk and it is uncertain what will be needed for relief. Thank you again and God Bless.
