10 Q. Does God permit such disobedience and rebellion to go unpunished?

A. The fall and disobedience of our first parents, Adam and Eve, in Paradise. This fall has so poisoned our nature that we are all conceived and born in a sinful condition.

11 Q. But isn't God also merciful?

A. God is certainly merciful, but also just. God's justice demands that sin, committed against his supreme majesty, be punished with the supreme penalty— eternal punishment of body and soul.

Prayer of Application

Offering and Offertory: Hull Food Pantry

*Song of Application: "Amazing Grace" PH 462:1,4, 5

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! As we gather for worship this morning, we remember Jesus’ journey to the cross. As He began His official ministry, he first went into the wilderness and was tempted by Satan. We read this in this morning’s text, Matthew 4:1-11. As Jesus was tempted so are we. Jesus resisted temptation. Even though we often fail we are challenged to do the same. In the evening, will read from Exodus 24:1-9 along with Lord’s Day 4 of the Heidelberg catechism. We remember that God is gracious, but He is also just. Let us worship God today!

Next Week: We give thanks to God as we plan to celebrate the baptism of Lucas James Van Lingen, son of David and Gina Van Lingen.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Council Notes:

- The Council has received the membership of Cody & Kathy Bauer and their children, Isabella, Conner, Kylee, and Zoey from First CRC, Hull. They have been worshipping with us for the past few months. Please extend your welcome to them!
- The Council has begun the nomination process for elders and deacons.
- The Council gives thanks for the service of Steve Haveman who has served two years as an elder and clerk. Steve and Kim and their children, Kiana and Jorji, will be moving to Sioux Center. We wish them the Lord’s blessing as they open this new chapter in life. To fill this vacancy, an additional elder will be selected in May for a full term.
