Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Holy God and loving Father, we confess to you that we often do not follow Jesus. We settle for division, rather than strive for unity. We hold on to our hate, rather than offer grace and compassion. Lord, overcome our selfishness and conceit with Christ-like humility. Help us to live in love and generosity. When you are lifted up and glorified, we experience your forgiveness and blessing. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

12 Q. According to God’s righteous judgment we deserve punishment both now and in eternity: how then can we escape this punishment and return to God’s favor?

A. God requires that his justice be satisfied. Therefore the claims of this justice must be paid in full, either by ourselves or by another.

13 Q. Can we make this payment ourselves?

A. No. To begin with, God will not punish any other creature for what a human is guilty of. Furthermore, no mere creature can bear the weight of God’s eternal wrath against sin and deliver others from it.

14 Q. What kind of mediator and deliverer should we look for then?

A. One who is a true and righteous human, yet more powerful than all creatures, that is, one who is also true God.

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! This morning we give thanks to God that we can witness the baptism of Lucas James Van Lingen, son of David and Gina Van Lingen. We give a special welcome to family and friends as they celebrate with us today. This morning we will read from Matthew 20:20-28 where the mother of James and John, disciples of Jesus, asked for a special place for her sons beside Jesus. We want to be close to Jesus also. What does Jesus tell us? In the evening, we remember the story of Abraham and Isaac from Genesis 22:1-19. We tie this with Lord’s Day 5 from the Heidelberg Catechism. As Abraham was willing to offer up his only son, we remember that our heavenly Father was willing to give up His only Son, the one true sacrifice. Let us worship God today!
