16 Q. Why must the mediator be a true and righteous human?

A. God's justice demands that human nature, which has sinned, must pay for sin; but a sinful human could never pay for others.

17 Q. Why must the mediator also be true God?

A. So that the mediator, by the power of his divinity, might bear the weight of God's wrath in his humanity and earn for us and restore to us righteousness and life.

18 Q. Then who is this mediator— true God and at the same time a true and righteous human?

A. Our Lord Jesus Christ, who was given to us to completely deliver us and make us right with God.

19 Q. How do you come to know this?

A. The holy gospel tells me. God began to reveal the gospel already in Paradise; later God proclaimed it by the holy patriarchs and prophets and foreshadowed it by the sacrifices and other ceremonies of the law; and finally God fulfilled it through his own beloved Son.

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! In our worship on this final Sunday of March, we come closer to Calvary and the cross of Jesus. We remember that it is only in Jesus that we have any hope for this life and for the life to come. This morning, as we read from Luke 7:36-50, we remember that Jesus bids us to come to Him now. If we wait until we're perfect, we'll never come at all. To the shock of the "good" people, Jesus allowed his feet to be washed and anointed by a "sinner." Jesus calls us to come to Him today. In the evening, we are reminded that it can only be Jesus. We remember, in Micah 6:1-8 and also Lord's Day 6 of the Heidelberg Catechism, that there are no sacrifices, no amount of good deeds, nothing at all that can earn us salvation. It is only the perfect sacrifice of Jesus, fully human and fully divine, who can take our sins away. Hallelujah, what a Savior! Let us worship God today!
