A. No. Only those are saved who through true faith are grafted into Christ and accept all his benefits

21 Q. What is true faith?

A. True faith is not only a sure knowledge by which I hold as true all that God has revealed to us in Scripture; it is also a wholehearted trust, which the Holy Spirit creates in me by the gospel, that God has freely granted, not only to others but to me also, forgiveness of sins, eternal righteousness, and salvation. These are gifts of sheer grace, granted solely by Christ's merit.

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! “Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; His love endures forever.” We call this day, “Palm Sunday.” We remember Jesus’ final journey into Jerusalem before He was raised on the Cross. Jesus came into the city as a King, the Messiah. As we read from Luke 19:28-44, let’s remember and worship the King. In the evening, we are reminded how we recognize the King. It is through faith. Our evening text is Daniel 3 and we will also be reading from Lord’s Day 7 of the Catechism. Let us worship the King today!

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Maundy Thursday Service: We will be gathering this Thursday, April 18, at 7pm to remember Jesus’ last meal with His disciples. We will observe the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper. Before we celebrate the news that Jesus is risen, we must remember that He took our sins upon himself and died. Hallelujah! What a Savior!

Church Education: This is the last week for classes for our 3’s – 12th graders. A huge thank you to the teachers who volunteered and took time over the year to prepare lessons and teach each Sunday. And thanks to the children/students who came faithfully. Today you will enjoy singing again from the younger classes and we thank those who gave their time for this part of our program. Our prayer is that God’s Word that was planted in each of their hearts –through lessons and singing, may continue to grow and prepare them to be the person God has planned them to be. All praise to God!

ALL EASTER CANTATA SINGERS: We will be rehearsing TODAY at 3:00 at FIRST CRC! If you have been absent the last couple of weeks – PLEASE don’t let that keep you from coming back! We will be going through the program in its entirety in today’s rehearsal.

GEMS Blessings Celebration will be Monday, April 15, 7 pm at Hope CRC. Mothers and female role models are invited to join a GEMS as we celebrate the blessing of this year.

Youth Group: Senior night is on Wednesday. Seniors please meet at church at 6. We will eat out after our group activity.

Cadets - the annual Cadet-o-rama will be held in Rock Valley on April 17.

Habitat is building a house on 6th St., just down the road east of church. On Wednesday, April 17, beginning at 8:30am they are looking for 4-5 volunteers from Hope who would be willing to paint. The house walls will be painted with top coat, and the garage is to be painted with primer. If people have their own painting supplies (rollers, covers, brushes, pans, step stools), they are welcome to bring them along. Some supplies will be provided. Please consider this opportunity to serve in our community. Contact Pastor Todd if you are available or sign up on the sheet on the kitchen counter.

Easter Lilies: If you would like an Easter lily placed in church in memory of a loved one please purchase a lily and bring it to church. There is a sign-up sheet on the kitchen counter where you can write your name and your loved ones who it is memory of (This list will be printed in the bulletin on Easter Sunday). Please have it filled out by noon on Friday to be included.

THANK YOU

Thank you so much for the prayers, cards, food and encouragement after I broke my ankle! I am overwhelmed with gratefulness for all the support from my church family! I am in a boot and able to start using crutches. It's a slow process back to being on my own two feet and again I appreciate all the support. I ask for continued prayers as my ankle is healing and I work towards more independence!
Julie Horstman and family

Thank you to everyone who sent cards, prayed for us, and visited during Art's recent hospital stay. Thank you also to our care group for the gift, and to Pastor Todd for his visits. We are thankful to be part of a caring church family.
Art & Margaret Van Otterloo

We have felt so blessed by our church family as we sought solutions for Vanessa's migraines and blood pressure. We seem to have found a new mix of medicine that is helping so far. Thank you to all who helped with childcare, rides, and meals. Our hearts have been overwhelmed as we tried hard to trust in God, and he provided and blessed us with HOPE.
Mark & Vanessa Steiger and Family

PREPARATORY EXHORTATION

Congregation, we plan to celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Thursday. In preparation, we are called to reflect on our relationship with God and with each other.

Thus we take the opportunity to ask ourselves: what is truly our only comfort in life and in death? Do we trust in ourselves, or do we recognize that we, like the tax collector at the temple, come before the Lord with empty hands, with empty hearts, waiting to be filled? It is also an opportunity to seek reconciliation with fellow believers when conflicts or offenses have come between us.

To those who have nothing to bring with them but faith in Jesus, hope in his promises, and the stirrings of the Spirit in their hearts; for those who have been baptized into his name, we invite you, and urge you, to come to his Table, and share with us this holy fellowship, eating and drinking food that will strengthen you for the life of discipleship, and nourish you for the life to come.

Jesus was always the guest. In the homes of Peter and Jairus, Martha and Mary, he was always the guest. At the meal tables of the wealthy, where he pled the cause of the poor, he was always the guest. Upsetting polite company, befriending isolated people, welcoming the stranger, he was always the guest.

But here, at this table, he is the host. Those who wish to serve him must first be served by him. Those who want to follow him must first be fed by him. Those who would wash his feet must first let him make them clean. For this is the table where God intends us to be nourished; this is the time when Christ can make us new.

So come, you who hunger and thirst for a deeper faith, for a better life, for a more just world. Jesus Christ, who has sat at our tables, now invites us to be guests at his.
