Prayer of Forgiveness and Hope

Lord, we have fallen short of your will in so many ways. When we come to you and confess our sins, because of Jesus, you graciously forgive. Help us to live gratefully by bearing the fruit of the Spirit which "is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit." 42 Q. Since Christ has died for us, why do we still have to die?

A. Our death does not pay the debt of our sins. Rather, it puts an end to our sinning and is our entrance into eternal life.

43 Q. What further benefit do we receive from Christ's sacrifice and death on the cross?

A. By Christ's power our old selves are crucified, put to death, and buried with him, so that the evil desires of the flesh may no longer rule us, but that we may offer ourselves as a sacrifice of gratitude to him.

Welcome to Hope CRC! This morning we give thanks for God’s sovereign power. As part of His Church, we affirm that there is nothing greater and that he is working out His will to its completion in our lives as well as for all of Creation. We are reminded of this as we read from Acts 4:23-37. In the evening, we will read from Isaiah 53 and be reminded of the blessing and gift that we have as those who have been freed by Jesus Christ. We will also be reading from the Lord’s Day 16 of the Heidelberg Catechism. Let us worship God today!
