Dordt Recital: The public is cordially invited to a faculty organ recital by Dr. Carrie Groenewold, Associate Professor of Church Music and Organ, on Saturday, September 5, at 7:30 pm in the B. J. Haan Auditorium. Carrie will present a variety of organ repertoire ranging from the Baroque period to composers of our time. The program includes two works by Böhm, a partita on the beloved Genevan Psalm 42; contrasting pieces by French composers Vierre and Alain, the lively and seldom-performed Saga no. 7 by Jean Guillou; and will conclude with a Mendelssohn Sonata. Masks are required for all recital attendees and seating will be socially distanced.

POPS Concert: Join the Dordt University Mass Band and Chamber Orchestra conducted by Dordt Director of Instrumental Ensembles, Dr. Onsbly C. Rose, for our annual Pops Concert on Saturday, September 12, 2020 at 7:30 pm. This year's concert will feature the music of master cinematic composer, John Williams. From the Mass Band opening the concert with Williams' acclaimed setting of The Star Spangled Banner, to the Chamber Orchestra with featured student violin soloist, Brianna Miedema, or the emotionally-filled notes of the Theme to Schindler's List, we are sure there will be something to be enjoyed by all! This year's concert will take place in the football stadium beside the All-Seasons Center. We invite you to bring a lawn chair or a blanket and maybe even a snack, exercise social distancing and wear your mask, and enjoy the incomparable Iowa fall weather, as the Dordt instrumental ensembles treat your ears to a wonderful evening of music!

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! Today we praise God as we worship outdoors and celebrate the profession of faith of five of his covenant children. We give thanks for the work he has done in the lives of Kobi Baccam, Rachel Covey, Brennan Kooi, Lindsey Van Otterloo, and Allison Van Otterloo. Our text will be from Hebrews 12:1-3. As these young people continue to run the race before them, we are all reminded to persevere and keep our focus on Jesus Christ. For the evening online meditation, Pastor Todd will read from Isaiah 55:6-7. This text will be paired with Lord's Day 45, Q & A 116 of the Heidelberg Catechism which reminds us why all believers need to pray. Let us worship God today!

The congregation is reminded that immediately after the worship service, members of Hope CRC are invited into the sanctuary for a brief congregational meeting to vote on Hope CRC's call for Pastor Todd to serve as Director of Church Relations at Dordt University. Copies of the position description as well as the agreement between Hope CRC and Dordt University were placed in your mailboxes last week.

Thank You: Over 31 years of fighting cancer, off and on, we, the family of Gary Roetman, want to say how grateful we are for each one of you. You all have been so faithful in praying for us, visiting us, encouraging us, and supporting us in many different ways throughout this journey. Thank you, Pastor Kotman, for your many visits, prayers and calls. You have been such a blessing. Thank you to our Elders and Deacons who made many visits and calls to check up on us and extend a helping hand in any way needed. Thank you to Care Group 4 for the many ways you all showed your support and love! We never walked this long road, with its hills and valleys, alone! Our God never left our side and always provided. He continues to be Faithful, Kind and Compassionate, meeting us in our greatest time of need, with Comfort and Love. Gary lost his “battle” but was given the Ultimate Prize of spending Eternity with his Lord and Savior. The many expressions of sympathy and gifts given in Gary’s memory from this community will never be forgotten.

Thank you from the heart of each and every member of the Gary Roetman Family.

Thank You: We are very thankful to our good and great God for His ever watchful eye on us, and for His people here at Hope CRC who have made His care for us so real and tangible – visits, phone calls, cards, food, and assurance of your prayers have been so abundant that the list would be too long to print. Sherry is gradually feeling a little bit better each day following her surgery that took place six weeks ago tomorrow. Thank you, friends/brothers-and-sisters-in-Christ, for all that you have done for us!

Secure in Christ’s love, John & Sherry Kooiker

Thank You: We want to express our gratitude for the kindness shown after the passing of Matt’s dad Gary! The cards, flowers and food that were given to us by the church family was very thoughtful.

Thank you so much! The Roetman’s
