From the Mass Band opening the concert with Williams' acclaimed setting of The Star Spangled Banner, to the Chamber Orchestra with featured student violin soloist, Brianna Miedema, or the emotionally-filled notes of the Theme to Schindler's List, we are sure there will be something to be enjoyed by all! This year's concert will take place in the football stadium beside the All-Seasons Center. We invite you to bring a lawn chair or a blanket and maybe even a snack, exercise social distancing and wear your mask, and enjoy the incomparable Iowa fall weather, as the Dordt instrumental ensembles treat your ears to a wonderful evening of music!

WORSHIP NOTES

Welcome to Hope CRC! This morning we will be reading Philippians 1:3-11 where Paul give thanks to God for the partnership in faith that he shares with the people. The focus remains: the praise and glory of God. In the evening, we will meet at church and will read from Jonah 2 to continue our study from the catechism on prayer.

As we gather together, just a reminder that while we are easing some of the restrictions we have had, please be thoughtful of all. Practice physical distance, please fellowship outside, and be thoughtful of those around you.

Let us worship God today!

Thank You: We want to give thanks for all the acts of kindness shown to us in the passing of our father and grandfather, Lee Bakker. The thoughts, words, gifts, and prayers were greatly appreciated by us and our families. Dwight and Jan: Nathan, Chanda and family.

Thank You: Thank you for all your prayers, cards, and words of encouragement as I dealt with coronavirus. It is a blessing to have such a caring church family.

Bill Heynen
