FIRST CRC FAMILY PRAISE AND PRAYER CONCERNS:

- Give thanks with Goldie Veldman for God's healing mercies and continued improvement. Goldie is thankful for all of your prayers.
- Maria Kotman has not been feeling well for the last several weeks. The Lyme disease specialist in San Francisco on Monday said the medication that she has been taking for the last four months is not helping. Pray the new medication will be helpful and that Maria will be encouraged. Pray also for our daughter-in-law Katy, who also has Lyme disease and has not been feeling well recently.
- Eldon De Wild was released from the VA hospital on Friday, May 12, and is feeling better. Continue to remember Eldon and LuAnn in your prayers.
- Give thanks for good progress for Randy Veldman. He is back to work part-time. He is grateful for your continued prayers.
- Pray for our shut ins: Sally De Groot, Audrey Jongetjes, Florence Kroese, and Melvin Van Otterloo at Pleasant Acres; Wilma Altena, Verne Huisman, Julianne Kats, Esther Rozeboom, Goldie Veldman, and Anthony Smit at Aspen Heights; Don Westra in his home, and Ardelle Westra in Sioux City.

HOPE CRC FAMILY PRAISE AND PRAYER CONCERNS:

- Lyla Boer continues physical therapy at Avera-McKenna in Sioux Falls. We pray for continued strength and recovery. We keep Don and the rest of the family in our prayers as well.
- We continue to pray for Trent Hulstein, infant son of Josh and Kaylee Hulstein, who continues to receive care at the NICU at Sanford Hospital. We give thanks for steady progress and we pray for continued strength and growth. Please pray for Josh and Kaylee and family as they manage a family during this busy time.
- Dave Mulder, brother in law to Marideth and Mike Van Otterloo, has been receiving chemotherapy with the hope that he will be able to receive a bone marrow transplant. He is very tired and weak after the treatments. We pray for strength, peace, and faith during this difficult time for Dave and his family.
- We remember our members who reside in care facilities: Mary Grooters at Pleasant Acres, Marv Boon at Prairie Ridge Care Center in Orange City, and Evelyn Dykstra in Byron Center Manor in Byron Center, MI. We also pray for their families as they support them.
