Sermon Notes:

HOPE CRC FAMILY PRAISE AND PRAYER CONCERNS

- The Lord called Jan Van Soelen home to Himself Thursday morning, we pray for God's peace and comfort for Marion and the family. The Oolman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
- We pray for those who have ongoing health concerns for which they are seeking healing and relief.
- We pray for all of those who are continuing with treatment for cancer.
- We rejoice and continue to pray for those who are recovering from surgery.
- Pray for those who mourn, who have lost those whom they loved and miss.
- Pray for all who are struggling with an addiction, emotional hurt, depression, anxiety, and mental illness.
- Pray for our families, our marriages, that God would strengthen them, guide them, and be honored in them.
- Pray for those who cannot join us in worship, that they would be comforted and feel close to the congregation, including Bill Heynen who is at Crown Pointe.
- We pray for those serving our communities in law enforcement, emergency services, fire department, and those who serve our country in the armed forces.

PRAYER TIME

We invite you to join us for a time of prayer and sweet communication with God. On Thursday's anytime between 2:00pm – 7:00pm, come and pray for each other, our church, our community, our country, and our world. You are welcome to pray in the sanctuary, pray around the church, pray in the classrooms, pray with others, pray by yourself, or pray with Pastor Keith. Let us take humble posture in prayer, be purposeful in our prayer, and embrace the promises we have from God in prayer.

WORSHIP NOTES

We welcome you to worship this week. We are glad you are worshipping with us.

This morning we will prepare for the celebration of the Lord's Supper on Sunday the 9th of June.

In the morning we continue our sermon series called "Romans Pillars", a journey through the book of Romans, as we recognize the foundational truth that Paul shares with the Roman church and us in his letter. We will open to Romans 1:18-32, as we consider our understanding of wrath and God's wrath specifically. Paul makes clear that the wrath of God is real, not contradictory of who He is, and finally we will examine why it is a part of the truth of the gospel.

In the evening we invite you to join us as we continue our evening series, looking together at the Sermon on the Mount, the teaching of Jesus that is recorded for us in Matthew, opening God's Word to Matthew 7:13-14. In this portion of the Sermon on the Mount we find Jesus describing the narrow and wide gates, we will ask ourselves what it means to enter the narrow gate?

We praise God that He has called us to worship Him in joy and in fellowship!

We Prepare Our Hearts for the Celebration of Communion next week

Minister: As we prepare to celebrate holy communion, let us remember that Scripture calls us to examine ourselves before God. We are taught that eating and drinking unworthily brings judgment upon ourselves (1 Cor. 11:28-29). Let us therefore ask God for the proper spirit in which to celebrate the sacrament. Almighty God, before whom can be neither secret thought nor hidden deed, grant us your Spirit that we may know our hearts, our lives, and our inmost thoughts as you know them. Grant us your grace that we may repent sincerely of all sin, find peace with you through our Lord Jesus Christ, and grow in assurance of salvation in Him. May the celebration of our Savior's infinite love in His redeeming death bring joy to us and glory to you.

All: We thank you, heavenly Father, for the atoning power of our Savior's death and for our share in His victory over sin. Open our hearts as we prepare for this celebration, that it may strengthen us in our faith, establish us in our hope, and confirm us in our love. In his name, Amen.

Minister: God's children rely wholly upon the merits of Christ, find in Him their strength and victory, and confidently expect His return in glory. They look forward to celebrating this holy supper anew with Him in the kingdom. They will surely be received by God at his table.

Let us also search ourselves to determine whether we love our neighbors as Christ commands. Do we unselfishly live for the welfare of others? Do our lives reflect the godly virtues of obedience, fidelity, integrity, justice, humility, and contentment? Do we seek reconciliation with our neighbors in all cases of offense? Those, therefore, who live in self-righteousness, who hope in works or virtues of their own, and who do not show love to God and neighbor, have no true place at the Lord's supper.

Yet we should not be deterred by any sin lingering within against our will. As we find faith, hope, and love within us, we ought gladly to obey our Lord's command and come with full expectation to God's open house of mercy.

All: Gracious God, we love and adore you in Christ our Lord. We thank you for reconciling us to yourself in him. We rejoice in being received as your children. Prepare us by your Holy Spirit for the sacrament. Help us to come in the assurance that by it we shall be spiritually revived, and strengthened in faith, hope, and love, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Profession of Faith Class has been changed to Sunday, June 2nd after the service in Pastor Keith's office, if you have expressed an interest or are interested in making profession of faith, please join us.

VBS: We are all good on the wall of need items and the volunteers to serve supper on Wednesday night of VBS. Thank you to all who donated and volunteered! If you haven't yet, please bring in your items to First Reformed Church, Hull VBS starts on June 2nd.
